

RANDOM CAMERA SHOTS AROUND THE WORLD

Thirty thousand United States soldiers passing in review on the Mexican border.
Photo: International Film Service.

She may be the first woman Cabinet member. Miss Frances A. Kellor, chairman of the Hughes Alliance, who is mentioned for Secretary of Labor in the event of Hughes's election.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Barbara Sefton of the "Century Girl" represents the new type of chorus girl that Charles B. Dillingham and Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., have sought for their big enterprise at the Century Theatre.

Dr. Amoro Sato, who succeeds Baron Chinda as Japanese Ambassador at Washington, photographed at his home in Tokio.
Photo by Bain.

Prince Leopold of Bavaria, Germany's new commander on the eastern front, and Field Marshal von Hindenburg, whom he succeeded and who is now in supreme command on all fronts.
Photo: Press Illustrating Service.

Margaret Ladd, a Texas girl who recently returned from Paris to startle home folks with her dancing, keeps in practice on the McAlpin roof.
Copyright, International Film Service.

Mrs. Vernon Castle with her new Bersaglieri plume.

The camera offers proof positive that the famous Mary Pickford curls are her own. Here's one in the process of making.